Membership Process:

All new memberships with Louisville Turners are a minimum of 1 year (12 months). For membership consideration, please complete this application, and select payment option. Payment may be turned into the lounge, mailed to the address above or paid online. You may email, fax, drop off to the lounge, or mail the application to the address listed above. All applications will be reviewed and accepted or denied from the Board of Directors. Upon acceptance of membership a letter or email will be sent to confirm membership has been accepted and member benefits will begin immediately after payment is received and will be on a 30 day probation until approval from the Board of Directors. If the application is rejected the application will be returned along with payment that is required when application is submitted minus payment for days used. There are two payment options that can be selected and all memberships require this application turned into the office (email, fax, mail, or turned into the pool or lounge). Online payment must be set up online at www.louisvilleturners.org. Membership is ongoing and online payment is auto renewed. All other forms of payment will be billed 30 days prior to the due date via email. Payment is due on or before the anniversary date or a late fee of $25 will be assessed for each month late. It is the obligation of the applicant to pay membership with or without invoice to remain in good standing. Applicants are required to cancel membership 30 days prior to the anniversary date to remain in good standing.
